

Welcome on our nice town's webpage!

Valdahon is a dynamic town located in the Haut Doubs (state of Bourgogne/Franche-Comté) where it feels good to live.

With a bit more of 5000 inhabitants, it's the cantonal capital since 2014.

Here, one can enjoy various services provided by the administrative center and the diverse shops. More over the pond (The Lieze) and the nearby forest (The Epresses) where one can take long peace for walks give visitors a true sense of serenity.

The constant growth of the town is made possible by the railway and the military camp that was built in 1907.

Valdahon's associational network and municipal committes contribute to its dynamism. They develop and organize various animations (conferences, concerts, plays...) and sportive activities (swimming pool, gymnasium, French bowls pitch and multi-sports synthetic pitch...)
